

#1 (Female) - My name is Elizabeth Leavens. I was born in Lynchfield, Ct. As a teenager I was censured by my church for advocating that the women in the congregation should be allowed to sit on the main floor of the church with the men. Does anyone have my name?

#2 (Male) - My name is Simeon Allen. I was born in 1779 in Franklin Massachusetts. I married Elizabeth Leavens and together we had 4 children. Does anyone have my name?

#3 (Male) - My name is Jude Allen. I am the oldest son of Simeon & Elizabeth. In the 1830s I cut a road from Dudley to Oxford MA, about 5 miles. I was paid about $12 for that work. Does anyone have my name?

#4 (Female) - My name is Emily Allen. I am the oldest daughter of Simeon and Elizabeth. Does anyone have my name?

#5 (Male) - My name is Ira Allen. I am the third child of Simeon and Elizabeth. I joined the church in Michigan in 1842. After joining the church I went back to my family in Connecticut to get a portion of my inheritance and then said goodbye and moved west to Nauvoo. The home I built was opposite the Nauvoo temple and I was able to do my own temple work during this life. When I left Nauvoo I spent over 3 years in Garden Grove, Iowa growing crops to sustain the pioneers.

(Ira should be given his own temple name & does not need to wait to go to spirit paradise)

#6 (Male) - My name is James Allen. I am the youngest child of the family. Does anyone have my name?

#7 (Male) - My name is Joseph Cabella. I was born in Italy in 1841 but emigrated to England and worked my way up to becoming a ship's captain. Little was remembered about me except that stories were told that my ship had been lost at sea in 1874. Does anyone have my name?

#8 (Female) - My name is Hannah Waller, I am the wife of Joseph Cabella. When he sailed to take goods to Italy I stayed home with our daughter and was pregnant. His ship was never found. Does anyone have my name?

#10 (Female) - My name is Rose Hannah Cabella, I was born after my father died but I only lived for a few months. Does anyone have my name?

#11 (Male) – My name is Cyril Horsefall Challoner. I was born in England in 1906 as the 8th of 9 children to James Fleetwood Challoner and Gwendoline Bayldon. In 1940 our city of Liverpool was under siege and received continual bombing. I died in the bombing. Does anyone have my name?

#12 (Female) - My name is Gladys Platt. I am the wife of Cyril. I was also killed in the bombing. Does anyone have my name?

#13 (Female) - My name is Thelma Gladys Challoner. I am the only daughter of Cyril and Gladys. I was also killed in the bombing. Does anyone have my name?

#14 (Male) - My name is Thomas Lusitania Smith. I was born in Liverpool, England in 1918 on the third anniversary of the sinking of the great ship the Lusitania. My mother gave me Lusitania as my middle name. I hated the name. Kids made fun of me and called me Lucy at recess. I joined the church when I was 33 and received my own endowment and did genealogy and the temple work for many of my family during my lifetime. I passed away in 2015. My biological father who I never knew had already passed on. Also my son who I never knew passed before me. I want to be connected to them but there are no records of our relationships.

(Tom should be given his own temple name & does not need to wait to go to spirit paradise)

#15 (Male) - My name is Leopold Hirschberg, I am the biological father of Tom Smith. I was on board the Lusitania when it was torpedoed during World War 1. As a crew member I was instrumental in saving many others– does anyone have my name?

#16 (Male) - My name is Peter Halpin, I am Tom Smith's estranged son. I was born in Ireland and searched for my dad all my life but I was never able to find him. Does anyone have my name?
